Riley Township Road Name Finally Corrected

For many decades, the name of Eagling Road in Riley Township was misspelled as "Egling" Road. Decades later, on October 22, 2002, largely due to the efforts of the Eagling, Lee and Spencer families, the St. Clair County Road Commission installed the final corrected road sign. As this last sign was mounted at the intersection of Masters and Eagling roads, Sarah Spencer, age 9 and Stephen Spencer, age 13 of Riley Township were presented with Good Neighbor awards by Don Maronde of the St. Clair County Road Commission for their part in the efforts to restore the correct road name.

[If there are any questions or concerns, please contact the Township Hall at (810) 392-2326. If the Times Herald is interested in doing a story on this instead of or in addition to this release, a good contact person would be Margie Spencer at 810-395-9105.]
